

Tidings From Timothy

Truth be told, we all “pass the buck” sometimes. This morning’s sermon is on the subject of Responsibility. Don’t forget our third Sunday singing and fellowship tonight!

Upcoming Events: There will be a gathering of those ladies that have been exchanging gifts through the year - and for those who wish to do so next year - at the McHenry’s on December 2 at 6:30pm.

There will also be a holiday devotional for those in grades 7-12 at the McHenry’s soon. I am still trying to decide on the best date. Those of you who know the school calender and such could perhaps suggest a date before Christmas to do this.

Church Directories: We will make new directories in January! More details will be coming soon, but for now we need a couple more volunteers to help coordinate things with the Olan Mills guy.

- 1) Begin with infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way he will grow up to believe the world owes him a living.
- 2) When he picks up bad words, laugh at him. This will encourage him to pick up “cuter” things later.
- 3) Never give him any spiritual training. Wait until he is 21 and let him decide for himself.
- 4) Avoid use of the word “wrong.” It may develop a guilt complex.
- 5) Pick up everything he leaves lying around. Do everything for him so he can learn to throw all responsibility onto others later in life.
- 6) Let him read any printed matter he can get his hands on. Make sure he washes his hands before eating but let his mind feast on garbage.
- 7) Quarrel frequently in the presence of your children. In this way they will not be too shocked when the home is broken up later.
- 8) Never let the child earn any of his spending money. Why should he have things as tough as YOU had them.
- 9) Satisfy his every craving for food, drink, and comfort. Denial may lead to harmful frustration.
- 10) Always take his part against neighbors, teachers, etc. After all, they are just pre-ju-dice against him.
- 11) When he gets into real trouble, apologize for yourself by saying, “I could never do anything with him.”
- 12) Prepare for a life of grief. You are apt to have it with this child.

Study the Bible?

God speaks to us today through the Holy Word of God - The Bible (Hebrews 1:1-2). The Scriptures instruct us in the way God requires His people to live (2 Timothy 3:16,17). The Bible is powerful and able to save us (Romans 1:16; James 1:21-25), if we will hear, learn and obey it.

Jeremiah 18:11 - 12 <sup>11</sup>“Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Behold, I am fashioning a disaster and devising a plan against you. Return now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.””
<sup>12</sup>And they said, “That is hopeless! So we will walk according to our own plans, and we will every one obey the dictates of his evil heart.”
