

Tidings From Timothy

Gospel Meeting is here! We wish to welcome Brant Stubblefield and family as they come to help us spread the gospel this week. Let each one of us bring a visitor, and come on out to the Meeting each night.

Fellowship Meal: There will be a fellowship meal after the services this morning. If you are visiting with us we would consider it an honor if you would stay and eat with us.

Youth Service: There will be no youth service this month as they gear up for a big one in May when Mt. Gilead hosts the county-wide youth devotional. The young men need to be listening for announcements about organizational meetings to get ready for the May lessons.

Meeting Flyers: We still have advertisements in the foyer. Pick up as many as you want. The sermon topics are on the advertisements.

Remember in Prayer: Please keep Helen Bartley and family in your prayers. There are several that have been on the prayer list for a while. Remember that James said, “Ye have not because ye ask not,” so ask God to bless all of them.

Time Change for tonight’s service: The worship tonight will be at 7pm instead of 6pm. Monday through Thursday will also be at 7pm.

More Meetings: There will be a meeting at Berea May 5-7 with singing at 6:30 and preaching at 7pm. I will be speaking at this meeting. The 28th Tennessee Bible College Lectures will be held April 30th to May 4th. I will be speaking on the 3rd at 11am.

Pew Packers: I have found in the past that since I am usually the one making announcements during Gospel Meeting, it is difficult to get my announcements together and meet with the young-uns, so there will be no Pew Packer meeting tonight before the evening service.

A Teacher Who Couldn’t Read

John Corcoran seemed to be a normal high school teacher. He had the qualifications: a bachelor’s degree and several additional hours of graduate work. For years he taught English, social studies and world history. But in time he was overloaded because of a personal secret that could no longer be kept silent: John Corcoran couldn’t read.

John had bluffed his way through life. He made it through high school and college by having his girlfriend to type papers for him or by buying essays from other college students. As a teacher - an odd choice for an occupation to say the least - he had his students to read aloud from textbooks and relied on class discussions and oral exams to get by. When he finally realized that he could continue the masquerade no longer, he revealed his hidden problem and went to a center to learn to read.

Isn’t it amazing that this man could hide this problem for so long? Not really, because many do the same thing in their spiritual life. Many who are lost pretend that every-thing is all right. They will not admit to themselves that they are lost and hell bound. They need to listen to the words of Paul: “Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap” (Gal. 6:7).

Others are like John Corcoran because they pretend to be what they really aren’t: Christians. As someone has said, a hypocrite is someone who is not himself on Sunday. Like the Pharisees of Jesus’ day, these pretenders “outwardly appear righteous unto men” but inside they are “full of hypocrisy and iniquity” (Matt. 23:28).

We man fool others, and we may even fool ourselves, but we cannot fool God. --Kerry Duke—

Heb. 4:13,14“Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.”

What Must I do to be saved?

- Hear the Gospel - Acts 15:7
- Believe the Gospel - Mark 16:15,16
- Repent of Sins - Acts 17:30
- Confess Christ - Rom. 10:9,10
- Be Baptized for the Forgiveness of Sins - Acts 2:38

Then, as a Christian we must:

- LIVE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH - REV. 2:10

Study the Bible?

God speaks to us today through the Holy Word of God - The Bible (Hebrews 1:1-2). The Scriptures instruct us in the way God requires His people to live (2 Timothy 3:16,17). The Bible is powerful and able to save us (Romans 1:16; James 1:21-25), if we will hear, learn and obey it.

Verses in preparation for the Lord's supper: John 6:48,50-51, 54-58 ⁴⁸I am the bread of life. ⁵⁰This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that one may eat of it and not die. ⁵¹I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world." ⁵⁴Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. ⁵⁵For My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is drink indeed. ⁵⁶He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. ⁵⁷As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who feeds on Me will live because of Me. ⁵⁸This is the bread which came down from heaven—not as your fathers ate the manna, and are dead. He who eats this bread will live forever."
