

Tidings From Timothy

God has been so good to all of us, the least we can do is recognize Him and be thankful to Him. This morning's lesson is on the "One God and Father" of the Bible – His existence and attributes.

I wanted to thank you all for the comments on my sermon from last Sunday morning. I believe as long as the truth is preached in love then we can all make progress toward more godly homes.

Handout: For those members that have not yet done so, please turn in the handout that we given you last week so we can get the work here more organized.

Pantry: Except for peas and corn, if you got it – we need it for the pantry.

In Need of Prayer: Julie Evans is at home now but is still not totally recovered. Ronnie Branstetter is recovering at Vanderbilt after successful surgery on his liver. Rylee Lyons is to have surgery Monday at Vanderbilt. Octavia Copas has been sick with the flu, but was able to stay at home. Several still have flu-like symptoms or related crud.

Religious Opportunities: There will be a gospel singing at Clementsville church of Christ on the first Friday evening in December.

Is That In The Bible?

In a recent column, Ann Landers included some real answers that were given to a Bible knowledge test. Read and enjoy:

1. Noah's wife was Joan of Ark
2. Lot's wife was a pillar of salt by day and a ball of fire by night.
3. Moses went to the top of Mount Cyanide to get the Ten Commandments.
4. The seventh commandment is "Thou shalt not admit adultery."
5. Joshua led the Hebrews in the battle of Geritol.
6. The people who followed Jesus were called the 12 Decibels.
7. The epistles were the wives of the apostles.
8. Matthew was one of the opossums.
9. Salome danced in seven veils in front of King Harrod's.
10. Paul preached acrimony, which is another name for marriage.
11. David fought the Finkelsteins, a race of people who lived in Biblical times.
12. A Christian should have only one wife. This is called monotony.

I would hope that our level of Bible knowledge would be better than that. Find the time, take the time, make the time to study the Bible. Remember what Jesus said, "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled." (Matthew 5:6). The Apostle Peter encouraged Christians, "As newborn babes, desire the pure milk of the word, that you may grow thereby," 1 Peter 2:2.

You never know when your level of Bible knowledge will be tested: by your children, a neighbor, a coworker, etc. You need to study the Bible regularly so that you will "Always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you," 1 Peter 3:15.

Verses for the Lord's Supper:

John 12:23-26 ²³... The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. ²⁴Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. ²⁵He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. ²⁶If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.
