

Tidings From Timothy

Holy Spirit issues occasionally come up in the church and out of it. The Spirit of God is often misunderstood and we aim to learn more about it in both services today.

In Uncertain Times

We don't know how long we will be able to live here. Each day is a blessing from God, and there are any number of things that could cause our lives here to come to an end. The real problem is that many in the world get to feeling comfortable with their existence and life in the here and now. They take no thought for eternity. Some remember God when they get older (cf. Eccles. 12:14), but many die without ever letting thoughts of eternity bother them at all. They are living in denial. When uncertain economic times come, they just can't handle it. They have no one (God) to turn to. They yearn for the days when they ignorantly thought that life would just go on and on the same forever.

This doesn't have to be a description of you. If you know that life here on earth is fleeting, if you know that God has prepared a judgment day, and if you yearn to worship the Lord according to the precious words of the Bible – no more and no less – then you are welcome here at Mt. Gilead. We hope you have been made to feel welcome, and that you will find answers for both this life and the one to come. Thank you for your attendance today!

Thank You: I wanted to express my thanks to the Teen class for getting the military Bibles ready for distribution. These Bibles were donated by a lady in Harlan County KY, but needed to have some good literature prepared to go with them.

Pantry: Some things are gradually coming in for the pantry. It now needs to be organized some more, there are a couple of areas downstairs with food that need to be moved to the new pantry room. Keep the food coming!

Gospel Meeting: There is a meeting this week at Kingdom Hill through Wednesday night.

In Need of Prayer: Kerry McPherson continues to recover from hip surgery. The Keys are still having lots of doctor visits. JD needs a driver to take him to a Dr.'s appointment on Wednesday. Gene Goode had a stay in the hospital due to his heart skipping. He still has the skip, but is now out and about until he hears from Dr. Graves. Jeff Warren was in a car accident, but is now at home.

SOMEWHERE...

- A mother is trying to make up her mind to let a surgeon perform an operation on her only child that may end his life.
- A father whose son didn't come home last night is walking through a door marked "City Morgue."
- A wife whose marriage has "gone on the rocks" is on a street corner flirting with a man she knows will destroy her fidelity.
- A husband is sitting in his bedroom toying with a pistol while his wife is shrieking at him from the bottom of the stairs to come down and explain his recent whereabouts.
- A tired doctor is shaking his head and saying "terminal cancer."
- AND a contented "Christian" is lying in his comfortable bed, yawning and deciding against going to worship this fine Sunday morning, because, after all, he doesn't really have anything to be thankful for!

Read Psalm 100:4

Lord's Supper Reading: John 6:32 - 35 ³²Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." ³⁴Then they said to Him, "Lord, give us this bread always." ³⁵And Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst.
