

Tidings From Timothy

Lots going on today: We want to welcome those visiting with us for our ladies day. A special welcome to Sheila K. Butt for speaking this afternoon and making the trip out to encourage the ladies. Lunch today for the ladies will start at 11:30am with services at 12:30pm.

We are all saddened at the passing of Kate Carter. Kate loved life, her Lord, and His church. Her funeral will be today at 1pm at Strode's Funeral Home with burial at Memorial Lawn. There will be a meal here for the family afterward.

Area-Wide Devotional: Next Sunday, May 2nd is time for us to host this event. Food Groups – please bring food as you did last year for this event. If there is any question about what you need to bring this year, then please find out today so we can be ready next Sunday night.

Nursing Home Service: Today is our day to host services at the nursing home at 2pm.

Potter Home items: We need to get the following items in this week. You all have made a start on this, but we need quite a bit more to justify them coming out to get it. The items wanted are: Canned Chicken, Jiffy Corn Bread Mix, 9volt batteries, Magic Eraser Sponges, Bean Soup Singing School: Last meeting is next Saturday at 8am. We are learning a lot from these classes.

In Need of Prayer: Rick Bartley has still been having a lot of difficulty after his accident and surgery. Connie's grandfather, Glendale Hickey, is to start Chemotherapy treatments for his cancer. Frank Massingille has been in Vanderbilt following a bad accident. The plan was for him to be moved to a rehab facility as soon as possible. Ramsey Bartley is to have her eye procedure this week.

“Then said one unto Him, Lord, are there few that be saved?” (Luke 13:23). (continued from last week)

What is God's desire in this matter? What is His preference? Peter tells us, “The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.” (2 Peter 3:9)

The beloved apostle Paul, chosen by God to be the messenger to the Gentiles, in-forms us that God would have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. (1st Timothy 2:4).

How can we find the answer to our question? The Bible does not provide a NUMERICAL answer. We are simply told that “few” will be saved, and that “many” will not be saved. We have always believed that few was less than many.

The Holy Spirit lets us know “who” can be saved. In Hebrews 5:8-9, we are directly informed that Christ our Lord “became the Au-thor of eternal salvation unto all them that obey Him.”

The Holy Spirit, speaking through the beloved John, informs us in Revelation 22:14, “Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.”

Some today teach “just believe and ac-cept Christ” and be saved forever! The devils believe (James 2:19). If salvation is available to those who “just believe,” then all the de-mons will be in heaven. James warns, “By works a man is justified, and not by faith only” (James 2:24). Paul also warns us in Galatians 5:6 that faith must work by love to avail any-thing, that is to be worth anything.

Our Lord warned that if we do not re-pent, we shall all perish (Luke 13:3,5; Acts 17:30-31). He reminded all in Matthew 10:32-33 that whosoever shall deny Him will be de-nied before the Father. Then all must confess unto salvation (Romans 10:10).

He went further in Mark 16:16, 1 Peter 3:21, and in Galatians 3:27-29 to show us that we must be baptized to be saved and that only baptism puts one “into Christ,” where we are heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ Himself. --Fred Dillon--, to be continued next week...

Lord's Supper Reading:

Leviticus 16:15-16 (NKJV) ¹⁵“Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering, which is for the people, bring its blood inside the veil, do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy seat and before the mercy seat. ¹⁶So he shall make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions, for all their sins; and so he shall do for the tabernacle of meeting which remains among them in the midst of their uncleanness.
