

Tidings From Timothy

Despite being tricked into the “Oldywed Game” last week (Connie and I let you win ☺), I think everyone had a good time. This week we have Nursing Home Service at 3pm. Come out and help us out with this if you can. Tonight is the young men’s service, so don’t miss out on some good worship tonight at 6pm. This morning we are studying on Zechariah chapters 7 & 8. I believe this sermon will be especially good for us study on as we get into Easter time.

Bible Bowl: We still need some firm commitments for a High School team. The name we are going with is “KY Soul-hunters.” Get behind these young people as they get ready to participate in what could be Mt. Gilead’s first Bible Bowl March 5th!

Potter Commodities: We are still holding out for a few more items so that we will have enough to say we have given a decent amount. Please do this as soon as possible.

In Need of Prayer:

Zella King, Rachel Bartley’s sister, is in extremely poor health and Rachel has been with her in IN. Mary D. Clements has been feeling poorly but is doing some better now. Connie Tooley has been in the local hospital.

Rejoice! Gary Bartley saw me earlier this week and we had a good talk. He wanted to get his life straitened out and on track for the Lord, but was concerned about what was best for the Lord’s church. I told him, as others have, that the Lord wanted him NOW and that all good Christians will rejoice at his decision to serve God faithfully.

Determined to do what was right, Gary and I had prayer and the Devil was defeated once again – Praise to God! Welcome Gary back in the fold and remember that today is always the day of Salvation! Will you serve God as well?

Question: I want to know if the Trinity, God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, are three different beings with equal power, or the same being with different titles. Also, are there any references to this in the King James Version?

Answer: Let’s deal with this from the last question and go back. There is no reference at all in the KJV, or any reliable translation, to the word “Trinity.” However, there is reference to the “Godhead” – Acts 17:29; Rom. 1:20 & Col. 2:9. The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are not mere titles, so they are not just the same being with different titles. It is difficult to use the word “being” or use other such words in which we speak of a creature. The Creator, God, is different from all of us so understanding Him as well as we would like is simply beyond us here and now. Let me say this: As you read Acts 17 and other places you understand some of the “nature” of God. There is one God. That is, there is one all-knowing, all-powerful, all-loving Creator. There are three personalities, or persons, who are this Creator. They have this nature. They are the Godhead, or Trinity, if you will. It’s not like the Father created the world, but not the Son. Their work is in concert with one another. Consider a room with several florescent lights. The light is the same. By the time it reaches our body, we cannot distinguish it. Yet we know that there are several bulbs up there. I encourage you to study passages like Acts 17 and Genesis 1 that explain the power and purpose of God revealed to us through his creation, and then study the Bible to learn exactly what He wants from us in all things.

What must I do?

- Hear the Gospel - Acts 15:7
- Believe the Gospel - Mark 16:15,16 (cont. on p.4)
- Repent of Sins - Acts 17:30
- Confess Christ - Rom. 10:9,10
- Be Baptized for the Forgiveness of Sins - Acts 2:38

Then, as a Christian we must:

- LIVE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH - REV. 2:10

Lord's Supper passage: Luke 22:19-22 ¹⁹And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. ²⁰Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. ²¹But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table. ²²And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!
