

No More Meetings! Well, for me anyway. I love Gospel Meetings but after 3 straight weeks I am about Meeting'd out. It is good to be back and today I hope to share with you some thoughts on "Where are the dead." There is a worksheet/graph to accompany the sermon with this weeks bulletin. BTW, the meeting at Montrose went well. The brethren there are very nice and I preached as well as I can. This church has a building that has to be seen to be believed. That is, it is unique and in a beautiful spot.

In need of Prayer: I have not received word of the test results for Luke Whitehead, be listening for an update this morning. Marshall Isenberg continues to recover. Sharon Goode is to stay away from crowds for a while but has been recovering well. As she would say, "God is in charge and taking care of it."

Church pantry: We need to restock the pantry. Many items were out of date, etc. and have been cleared off the shelves.

Fall Festival at McHenry's: We want to thank all those who helped and came out to the house yesterday. Everyone had a good time.

Singings: There will be a singing November 1st (1st Friday of November), at New Hope church of Christ. Remember that they were good to support us in our Bible Bowl. Also, there will be a singing in early December at Clementsville church, more details on that one later.

Tonight: The youth sermon will be given by Clifton Hamilton. He is a very knowledgeable young man and you will learn much if you come.

Question: What does I Peter 3:18-21 mean? Did Jesus go and preach to spirits who were dead and in Hell?

No, He did not. The text says: "For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

19 By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

21 The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:" (I Pet. 3:18-21).

Let us consider the passage in depth. If this verse taught, as some seem to think that it does, that Christ went and preached to a select group of people in Hell, while they were there, then how can we make sense of it? You see, if Jesus went and preached to those already in Hell, then what would he say? There is a great gulf fixed (Luke 16:26) between the sinner and Paradise (Abraham's bosom). Why would Jesus just preach to them and not to all those in torment, or prison? Is God a respecter of persons (Acts 10:34)?

Notice that it does not say Jesus went in person and preached to them, but rather that He went “by Spirit” (the word which refers to Spirit in verse 18). Is it possible to preach to others by sending your servants with a message? Yes! God has done this before with the Gentiles in sending out the Apostles (Eph. 2:17).
