

Since childhood we have all been curios. The saying is, “Curiosity killed the cat.” However, some amount of curiosity is good, and questions about why you do what you do in religion are perfectly fine. This morning I will be preaching on the subject of “Why...?” and hopefully we can say more than just “Because.” We all need to know why we should do what we do in religion.

Tonight, is a simple, that is, a straightforward lesson on “3 Foolish Ideas.” I hope you will find it interesting.

YOUTH DEVO: Tonight after services at the Clements. Bring a light-hearted gift if you like. Also, boys bring a drink, and girls something sweet (besides yourself!).

IN NEED OF PRAYER IN NEED OF PRAYER: Luke Whitehead has a heart monitor and they hope to learn more about his condition after a couple of weeks. Tony High is still recovering from his back surgery and the recovery is going well. Lavonne Welch’s heart surgery went well, but she had some complications afterward. They are planning to release her this week to a rehab facility. Jodi Deckard’s surgery went well and she got a good follow up report with tests coming back “negative,” which is a good thing. Buel Abney is having some rough days battling his cancer. Shirley Eversole has an appointment this week to schedule her surgery.

Address Change: We are glad for them, but sad that Jordan and Leah Turner will be living out of the immediate area. Their shower Saturday went well and we wish them the very best in their life together. New address:
Jordan and Leah Turner

When I want to speak let me think first. Is it true? Is it kind? Is it necessary? If not, let it be unsaid.—Maltbie Babcock
