

Today we pass the halfway mark of our study on faithfulness. This is the day we get down to “brass tacks” on how you show faithfulness and your motivation to be more faithful.

Tonight, we have our third Sunday singing and fellowship after church.

IN NEED OF PRAYER: We are saddened at the passing of Madie Kerr. Her funeral is today at 2pm at Yokely-Trible with a meal to follow here at the church building. Food group 2 is assigned to this funeral. My great aunt Roberta Thomas has also passed away. Her funeral is today near Cookeville at Presley funeral home. Also, Shirley Chandler’s nephew passed away and his funeral was in Greensburg. Debbie Adams got through her carpal-tunnel surgery okay but has had some swelling. Phyllis Dyer was also in the hospital for some tests and is now out.

Do You Know Where You Are Going?

I heard the story of the woman driving through a snowstorm just outside of Denver. She was completely lost and struggling under the hazardous weather conditions. She was relieved when she happened upon a snowplow. Since she was lost she decided to follow the truck and kept as close to the machine as she could while it removed snow from the road. At times the blowing snow almost cut off her view, but she kept following it.

After some time, the snowplow stopped and the driver got out and came back to her car. "Lady, where are you going?" he asked. "I'm on my way to Denver." she replied.

The truck driver replied, "Well, you'll never get there following me! I'm plowing a parking lot!"

Before we let others lead us, it would be helpful to know their direction. We can always be assured that following God puts us on the right Way. Author unknown

³Let not mercy and truth forsake you;
Bind them around your neck,

Write them on the tablet of your heart,
⁴And so find favor and high esteem
In the sight of God and man.

⁵Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
And lean not on your own understanding;

⁶In all your ways acknowledge Him,
And He shall direct your paths.
