

Youth service is tonight. You will not want to miss that. Also, we finish this morning with our series on faithfulness in 2015. I would like to structure it by going through a faq list and then deal with some matters of attitude.

IN NEED OF PRAYER: Lavonne Welch had a stroke but quickly recovered. She was sent to St. Thomas hospital and was also in the hospital for some tests and is now out. Kenny Bartley is in TriStar/Centennial hospital in Nashville with a blood clot in his chest. He will be there a while. We are saddened at the passing of John Rouse, brother to Roger Rouse and Patsye York. Visitation will be this afternoon from 1:00-4:00 with a memorial service to follow at McMurtrey's in Summer Shade. Food Group 3 is in charge of the meal. James Scott, grandson of Morris, has been diagnosed with cancer. Sheila McGeorge's surgery has been rescheduled for Feb. 5th. Remember all of these people in your prayers.

Singing: It is not too early to plan on the Monroe County singing hosted by Mt. Gilead in February. This is done on the 3rd Sunday at 2pm.

THE ART OF LIVING EACH DAY

Each day is a lifetime in miniature ... To awaken each morning is to born again, to fall asleep at night is to die to the day. In between waking and sleeping are the golden hours of the day. What we cannot do for a lifetime we can do for a daytime. Anyone," wrote Robert Louis Stevenson, "can live sweetly, patiently, lovingly, purely, till the sun goes down." Anyone can hold his temper for a day and guard the words he speaks. Anyone can carry his burden heroically for one day. Anyone can strive to be happy for a day and to spread happiness around. Anyone can radiate love for a day.

Anyone can rise above fear for a day and meet each situation with courage. Anyone can be kind and thoughtful and considerate for a day. Anyone can endeavor to learn something new each day and mark some growth. When we fail and fall short, let us forgive ourselves and consider the words of Emerson: "Finish every day and be done with it. Tomorrow is a new day; you will begin it well and serenely and with too high a spirit to be cumbered by your old nonsense." Live a day at a time and remember that tomorrow is another today.
Wilferd A. Peterson

³¹ Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? ³² (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. ³³ But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. ³⁴ Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Matthew 6:31-34 (KJV)
