

Big day today. We have several activities and we hope you can participate in as many as possible. It may be cold outside, but you will find warmth and a welcome here in the Mt. Gilead church.

This morning, we revisit the subject of giving, it is broader than you might think and has a lot of importance in Scripture.

IN NEED OF PRAYER: Buell Abney has been moved to NHC in Glasgow where Lucille is also. He is in room 155 and trying to regain his strength. Dale Moore is recovering from pneumonia and hopes to be out soon. Lena Moore fell at the nursing home and is also recovering.

Singing: The Monroe County singing hosted by Mt. Gilead is this month. This is done on the 3rd Sunday (today) at 2pm.

Our Singing: That's right, there's another one! Tonight we have our regular singing and also our Sweetheart Banquet afterward.

Sweetheart Banquet: It seems like some people have been married forever, they even start looking like each other don't they? Anyway, tonight we crown a different king a queen who have stuck it out and inspire us as "sweethearts" for life. We will also have some fun activities. There is a sign-up sheet out front if you want to help.

Ladies Day has been set for March 28th. An advertisement is posted on the webpage and hard copy adverts are now available. Debbie Kea is the speaker.

One Call: We are needing to revamp our call system. There are sheets of paper in the hallways to sign or update information on if you want to be added or to change your number on our automated call list this year.

Potter Food List: You are doing great. If you have anything else to contribute, please bring it by next Sunday. Leave it in the basket in the foyer.
