

I believe that was the best job I've heard brother Hester do in a meeting. Any lack of response was certainly not due to anything lacking in the pulpit. Anyway, we were blessed by many visitors which helped us have good crowds, especially Wednesday. I want to personally thank all the food groups, you did a great job.

Now that we are back in the regular swing of things, I wanted to preach this morning on the subject of "Who is my Neighbor?" This evening I will investigate the book of Esther. There will be a handout with this sermon.

IN NEED OF PRAYER : Please remember in prayer the families of those who have lost loved ones. Rylee Lyons has a procedure coming up later this month. Connie Carter has been recovering well at home. Your prayers are requested for David Gordon, friend to Billy Grissom, David is fighting cancer.

Trunk N Treat: We are looking into doing this next Sunday night after church. That way, it won't be so late in the night when we get done.

Good Neighbors

God wants us to be good neighbors, and we can start today! Pay attention to what is going on around you. Talk to people with a cheerful voice and get to know them. The more you know them, the more you can help them. Make it a daily habit to treat others the way you want to be treated.

Set a goal today to do a good deed each day. These deeds can be simple, like opening a door for someone or offering encouraging words. You will find that, as you look for opportunities to help others, the opportunities will come more easily. And you will find that, the better neighbor you become, the more blessings you will receive. You have God's Word on that!

When we help others in need, God says our ultimate reward will be from Him. Although we may think of the good deeds we do as merely helping our fellow man and woman, God sees it as helping Him.

<sup>34</sup> Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: <sup>35</sup> For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: <sup>36</sup> Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

<sup>37</sup> Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? <sup>38</sup> When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? <sup>39</sup> Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

<sup>40</sup> And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Matthew 25:34-40 (KJV)
