

his morning's sermon is posted online. Tonight I will have a worksheet on the book of Esther. Esther is a fascinating read and I hope you get a chance to look at the book before we meet tonight.

IN NEED OF PRAYER : Rylee Lyons is gradually getting better. Gary Bartley has been in St. Thomas Midtown hospital and hopefully is in a regular room by this morning. Eugene Emberton has had bypass surgery on his heart and is in the regular St. Thomas. The surgery went well. We are saddened at the passing of Lena Moore. She had a large family and was basically adopted by the nursing home to have an even larger family in the last few years. She will be greatly missed. You prayers are also requested for the Cleary family in the passing of Charles Cleary, step-father to Sheila Gerald.

Meetings: Tompkinsville's fall Gospel Meeting starts today with Keith Parker. Milestown in Clay county has a meeting with different speakers and the evening services are at 6pm through Tuesday. The Northwest church has a Lectureship with different speakers later in the month; advertisements are here at the building.

I Am My Neighbor's Bible

I am my neighbor's bible
 He reads me when we meet
 Today he read me in my home
 Tomorrow in the street

He may be a relative or a friend
 Or slight acquaintance be
 He may not even know my name
 Yet, he is reading me

So, I'll watch my steps where ere they go
 And my eyes what they may see
 And all the words forth from my lips
 Because someone is reading me

I'll try my best to do God's will
 And be what He wants me to be
 An all seeing eye is looking down
 And I know He's reading me

And so my God, who reads us all
 Knows me from A to Z
 And when I meet him on Judgment Day
 He'll still be reading me

But if I do all of these things
 Just so someone may see
 And works not prompted by my love
 I'll never be set free.
