Email about Friends and Family Day: For those who didn't hear me read it off the other day, I thought you might get a kick out of the email that Tommy and Brenda Furgeson sent us after a great F&F day:

Elders, members, Tim and all, we had a great day at worship at Mt Gilead on Sunday Sept. 6-15. We are still so excited about it I don't know where to start. But we will try. We have known people at Mt Gilead for many, many yrs. My mom took us to Mt Gilead when we were very small. We have a lot of memories of this Congregation. Now let me get to my point.....Tim, we did not get to talk much Sunday. Joe and Nancy stayed in the next room from us at the Tompkinsville Inn. On Saturday night Brenda met Joe outside ,they started a conversation . Brenda , ask Joe if they came for the watermelon festival. He said ,no they came for the family and friends day. he said they are celebrating 158yrs. Brenda ,said that we were also attending the worship service. Then the Dyer family name came up. Brenda told Joe that her family was kin to the Dyer family. Brenda called for me to come out and meet Joe. Here is a total stranger, who we did not know. We had never met or seen Joe Billy ever. He told Brenda that his wives name was Nancy. She was no stranger. We have known Nancy from childhood. We attended the Bray School together, also went to church together her at Mt Gilead with a lot of precious folks. We had not seen Nancy for over 30yrs.!!! Joe, completely surprised me and Brenda when he came down. After Joe was baptized, he told me and Brenda that he had been thinking about being baptized for 12yrs or more.. It was an exciting day to worship once again with the brethren at Mt Gilead , giving God the praise and glory for ever. Tommy & Brenda.!! (edited by STM)

Update on Singapore Missionaries: We hadn't heard from them in a while, and now we know why. Here is an email I got recently from them:

Hi Everyone,

We have welcomed a new addition into our family! At 3:33PM Perth/Singapore time on September 26, 2015 we welcomed Ezekiel Martin Swayne into the world (you can call him Zeke for short). He weighed in at 3.98 kgs (about 8 pounds 12 ounces) and was 52cm (about 20.5 inches) long. Thank you so much for your prayers and support during the pregnancy!

We are way behind on our newsletter updates, but when things settle down we look forward to telling you more about our little man as well as update our mission work. God bless each of you!

In Christian Love,
Patrick & Chantelle Swayne

P.S. You might be able to guess the source of the first name. :) However, Zeke's middle name comes from Robert Martin, a Pacific Island missionary and inspiration to many Bible Bowl: We need you to get ready with hot dogs and chili and stuff to go with it for the luncheon after we get done. This will be Saturday. I could use some funds to reimburse our youth money we will be using for the T-Shirts and stuff.

What Must I do?
