

tidings From Timothy

How can a person live without faith? I have often thought of this and I am just as perplexed by it as when I first thought of it. Faith is necessary in every way. Perhaps some are contented to only have a little faith. If so, then this morning's lesson is designed to increase that faith as we study on the Stages of Faith. Tonight we have singing.

Monroe 3d Sunday Singing: This is today at 2pm here at Mt. Gilead. A lot of the old song leaders have passed on so we need all the help we can get.

In Need of Prayer : Cass T. Froedje is at home. A multitude are sick with the crud in Clay and Monroe Counties. Bobby Welch is out of the hospital and doing better. Shirley Chandler's brother is now in the local nursing home. Albert Kerr is now out of the hospital.

State Line Camp: Staff applications are out front. Please look into your schedule as soon as possible.

Potter Goods: We are collecting:

This week's article is the second of a 4-part series on worshipping with heart by Farrell Nicholson who preaches for the Agnos church of Christ in Agnos, AR.

WORSHIPPING WITH HEART

From his reading of the Holy Scriptures, this author believes that the spring of true worship is joy. The town of Mammoth Spring, Arkansas' namesake is a spring equally deep as the one beside which the Messiah revealed Himself to the earnest Samaritan (Jn. 4:6). This large "mammoth" spring, pumping out 9 million gallons of water hourly, is the head source for the popular Spring River. Just as this spring is the prolific source of water benefitting thousands of people and millions of fish/wildlife, joy is the basis for the heart that is ready to worship God in spirit.

When Jesus began His triumphant entry into Jerusalem, the people "spread their clothes in the way, And when He was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen" (Lk 19:36-37). When the jealous Pharisees told Him to rebuke them, He answered, "if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out" (v. 40). The people began to "rejoice". They could not help but express their immense joy at the ascent of the Messiah to the city of David (2 Sam. 6:12). He deserved praise, and to silence the disciples would cause the stones to cry out to fill the void. Joy was the catalyst for their worship (continued next week).

³ He is despised and rejected by men, A Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. And we hid, as it were, our faces from Him; He was despised, and we did not esteem Him. ⁴ Surely He has borne our griefs And carried our sorrows; Yet we esteemed Him stricken, Smitten by God, and afflicted. ⁵ But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; The chastisement for our peace was upon Him, And by His stripes we are healed. Isaiah 53:3-5
