Last week I preached about how faith comes first. Well, with respect to us, yes. But God actually provides something before faith. That is, he gave the GRACE. This morning sermon is about grace and especially how God has shown his grace to people in the New Testament times. I hope we can see by the grace given to them how we can appreciate the grace afforded to us today.

In Need of Prayer : Vivian Geralds has to have a biopsy and then wait another week after that for the results. James Arnold Deckard, longtime elder at the Tompkinsville congregation, has had a bad stroke and was in Nashville. However, I think they are moving him to Bowling Green. Lavene Smith wants the prayers of the church. She is to have cancer surgery on the 4th.

Wednesday Time Change: 7pm is the new time for Mid-week Bible study. If you come this Wednesday at 6pm, you will be waiting a while.

State Line Camp: You save $5 by registering on line, and we are now open for business! Camp is the week of June 18th. Staff applications (no fee for staff) can also be filled out online or can be picked up here at the building out front.

God’s Grace

“And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work” (2 Corinthians 9:8).

After these forty-two years of ministry, I have learned two important things. First, God’s servants are totally dependent upon the grace of God. God’s grace or favor provides far more than forgiveness. God shapes and molds us into the kind of people that He wishes us to be.

In Philippians 1:6 Paul wrote, “And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.” Yes, God expects us to use the talents and abilities He gives us, but we should never forget that every good gift comes from Him (James 1:17). Paul urges us, “Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.” (Philippians 2:12–13).

Second, we are wholly dependent upon the kindness of God to provide for our needs and the needs of this ministry. God does not send us into His vineyard empty-handed and ill-equipped. God’s grace abounds so that we have all sufficiency in all things at all times for every good deed. When faithful Christians ask, God answers; when they seek, He helps them find; and when they knock, the Lord opens the door. God truly answers prayer (Matthew 7:7-9).
