

Tidings From Timothy

Gwish to extend my thanks to Ben Smith and Tony High for their preaching for me while I was gone in a Meeting.

The Pippin church of Christ in Putnam Co. TN is a congregation of about 100 in the suburbs of Cookeville. There is good potential here for this congregation since Cookeville has grown in this direction. They have elders and deacons and are holding to the truth of the gospel. I did not have any visible responses during this Meeting but I am satisfied that the brethren were happy with how things worked out. We had excellent crowds each evening. This was my last Meeting until somewhat later in the year. The next things for us here at Mt. Gilead are the honoring of the graduates next week after singing, and of course church camp in June.

What is Faith?

Faith is not conjuring up, through an act of your will, a sense of certainty that something is going to happen. No, it is recognizing God's promise as an actual fact, believing it is true, rejoicing in the knowledge of that truth, and then simply resting because God said it.

Faith turns a promise into a prophecy. A promise is contingent upon our cooperation, but when we exercise genuine faith in it, it becomes a prophecy. Then we can move ahead with certainty that it will come to pass, because "God...does not lie." I often hear people praying for more faith, but when I listen carefully to them and get to the essence of their prayer, I realize it is not more faith they are wanting at all. What they are wanting is their faith to be changed to sight.

Faith does not say, "I see this is good for me; therefore God must have sent it." Instead, faith declares, "God sent it; therefore it must be good for me."

Faith, when walking through the dark with God, only asks Him to hold his hand more tightly.

Phillip Brooks composer of "O Little Town of Bethlehem"

²⁶ And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take, eat; this is My body." ²⁷ Then He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you." ²⁸ For this is My blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. ²⁹ But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's kingdom." ³⁰ And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. Matthew 26:26-30 (NKJV)
