

Tidings From Timothy

From one camp to another. Truth Bible Camp at Tennessee Bible College in Cookeville went well. They got a Senior camper to apply for the school and are excited about him developing into a gospel preacher. This morning we get ready to head out to Big Reedy, but before that we have the morning service of course. This morning I want to focus on confession and the importance of it in the modern world. Pray that all goes well with the camp, the weather is supposed to be beautiful after this first night of storms.

VBS: There is a sign up sheet for teachers out front. The materials will be in this week. VBS is July 9th-12!

In Need of Prayer: Suetta Adams is some better at the Medical Center in Bowling Green. Vivian Geralds continues her treatments. We are saddened at the passing of Darrell Tade. Billy Hicks should be at the local nursing home by the time you read this. Get the whole prayer list at www.mtgileadchurch.net!

State Line Camp: We begin on Father's Day. Why not take your dad out to lunch, give him a call, or whatever you do to celebrate (give him a tie?), and then come on down to registration at State Line. Registration is until 4pm so there is plenty of time to celebrate with Dad. If you need help finding the camp, I have directions sheets.

Scholarships: We are now taking Scholarships in memory of Sister Stoops. Donations will be noted to the camper and their families as being in her memory, and will be permanently noted in the donations list.

A Pew Bible has been donated in the memory of Cricket Finley who was the sister of Judy Wiley and Patricia Blythe.

Third Sunday Singing and Fellowship:

Because Camp starts today, we will not be having our singing and fellowship meal tonight. Greg Houchens will be bringing our lesson.

PRAYER

My hope comes from Him. (Psalm 62:5)

When we simply neglect to look for the answers to what we have asked, which shows the lack of awareness in our petition. A farmer is never content until he reaps a harvest; a marksman observes whether or not his bullet has hit the target; and a physician examines the effect of the medicine he prescribes. Should a Christian be any less careful regarding the effect of his labor in prayer?

Every prayer of the Christian, whether for temporal or spiritual blessings will be fully answered if it meets certain biblical requirements. It must be prayed in faith (Matt. 21:22) and in accordance with God's will (I John 5:14). It must rely on God's promise, be offered up in the name of Jesus Christ (John 14:14), and be prayed under the influence of the Holy Spirit (Rom 8:26).

God always answers the general intent of His people's prayers. He does so not only to reveal His own glory, but also to provide for the Christian's spiritual and eternal welfare. Since we see in Scripture that Jesus Christ never rejected even a single petitioner who came to Him, we can believe that no prayer made in His name will be in vain.

The answer to our prayer may be coming, although we may not discern its approach. A seed that is underground during winter, although hidden and seemingly dead and lost, is nevertheless taking root for a later spring and harvest. Edward Bickersteth

Delayed answers to prayer are not only trials of faith; they also give us opportunities to honor God through our steadfast confidence in Him even when facing the apparent denial of our request. Charles H. Spurgeon
