

Lists of things often get people’s attention. Top 10 lists have been popular for a long time and span across many subjects (songs, books, buildings, etc.) The Bible has its own lists. There may be more or less than 10, but they are still interesting and can tell us a lot about what God considers important. Today we will examine Galatians 5 in depth. The fruit of the Spirit list and the works of the flesh. We will see how these are important for all Christians.

Rejoice! The fruition of prayers for several years have come to pass in the baptism of JT Bean. I knew something good was going on when all those “Beans” started filling out of their cars on Sunday night. We wish JT an even longer and now much more profitable life in the Lord.

In Need of Prayer: I have been preoccupied with the Meeting and didn’t get much in the way of updates from people. We want to pray for the family of Sherrie Hagan. Rodney Fox is having several tests to determine what to do with spots on his lungs. With school started back - some have the crud. Get the whole prayer list at www.mtgileadchurch.net!

Next Big Event: Gospel Meeting will be on us before you know it. Get your adverts today and come back to see us each night in October!

Gospel Meeting report: My Meeting at Arcot went well. We had no outward responses, but there were many visitors and good prospects for some to start worshipping there at Arcot. This is a small rural congregation of 30 something a few miles south of Celina. Lord willing, I will be back to see these brethren in 2019. My last Meeting of the year will be a Pine Branch in Clay County on October 1-6.

Bible Bowl: I have been sending digital files via email to those interested in Sample Questions, class material, etc. Let me know if you want a copy of these or if you want a hard copy of anything you can get it in the office. Advertisements are out front.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law.

Just Kill the Spider

— Author Unknown

One of the deacons was called up frequently to pray at the midweek service, and always concluded his prayer the same way, “and now Lord, clean out all the cobwebs in our lives.” I think you know what he was talking about – those little unsightly words, deeds, and thoughts that we let accumulate through the week.

Well it got to be too much for one brother who had heard him pray that prayer many times. So one Wednesday night, after hearing those words again, he jumped to his feet and said, “Don’t do it Lord! JUST KILL THE SPIDER!”

How good and pleasing to God would it be if we just killed the spider rather than continue to have our lives filled with cobwebs. We will never be able to live acceptable before God and reach the heights Christ set for us until deep inside of us we have the desire to live clean and right before God. The greatest problem faced by the average Christian is the lack of desire to really give up the world and completely surrender to Christ. Thus, we always find our lives cluttered with “cobwebs,” with sins and mistakes. Let’s start by cleaning up the inside. Once we kill the spider we will no longer have to worry about the bothersome cobwebs.

³ He is despised and rejected by men, A Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. And we hid, as it were, our faces from Him; He was despised, and we did not esteem Him. ⁴ Surely He has borne our griefs And carried our sorrows; Yet we esteemed Him stricken, Smitten by God, and afflicted. ⁵ But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; The chastisement for our peace was upon Him, And by His stripes we are healed.
