

Tidings From Timothy

Welcome Michael Shepherd for the first day of our meeting. We request that you pray for every soul to respond as he should and for everyone to make his best effort to come out and bring a friend through Thursday night. We want to remind everyone of a couple of things. First of all, we are having a fellowship meal after this morning's worship. Don't worry if you did not bring a dish, there is plenty of food, so please stay. Second, each night including tonight the starting time for our services will be 7:00 pm.

In Need of Prayer: We are saddened at the passing of Willadean Gerald and Connie Lucas. We are in need of singers for Willadean's funeral this afternoon at 2:00pm at Yokley Tribble. Cass Deckard is weak and in need of prayer. Our complete prayer list is at www.mtgileadchurch.net!

Meeting Report: I was at the Pine Branch congregation this past week and those brethren are doing well. We had many visitors. It was a long meeting which allowed me to go into detail with several different subjects for mature Christians. We hope the very best for this little congregation in Clay county.

Bible Bowl: I have been sending digital files via email to those interested in Sample Questions, class material, etc. Let me know if you want a copy of these or if you want a hard copy of anything you can get it in the office. Advertisements are out front. The Pine Hill congregation has contacted us and indicated they will participate this year. Remember adults are also invited to be participate as an example to our young people. October 21 is the day.

Area Meetings: Oak Hill's meeting is next week with Jack Honeycutt speaking, Also Berea is having a meeting next week with different speakers each night.

Send the Fire Truck!

In a small eastern Kentucky town, the local police chief also served as part of the Volunteer Fire Department. His job was to answer the phone and in the event of a fire was to ring the fire bell to summons all the volunteer firemen in the county.

One Saturday morning, the phone rang and the chief answered, "Fire department." Out of the ear phone came the terrified voice of a woman yelling, "Hurry, send the fire truck!", but immediately hang up the phone. The chief sat there stunned. "Send it where?"

In a very few minutes, the phone rang again, and the chief again answered, "Fire department." Once more, in hysterical cries, the voice on the other end of the phone cried, "Hurry! Hurry!, send the fire truck," and again immediately hung up the phone.

The chief was even more perturbed. He ran out into the street and surveyed the scene for a full 360 degrees, looking for smoke. No smoke. Where was the fire? Whose house was going up in flames? Were there children who were in danger? All these things flitted through his mind.

He heard the phone rang again, and on the way back to the station office, he devised a way to keep the lady on the phone long enough to find where to send the fire truck. He grabbed the phone, and yelled, "Where's the fire?" The voice on the other end returned the yell by saying, "In the kitchen!" and promptly hung up the phone once more.

So much of what is called religion is a lot like this humorous situation. Insufficient information leaves people insufficiently informed and the lack of information promotes nothing but insufficient confusion. Only the full truth of God satisfies every situation in life.

It is by "every word" that comes from God's mouth, that our Lord says life in him is possible. Valley Station Church of Christ Bulletin

²³ For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: ²⁴ And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. ²⁵ After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. ²⁶ For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. 1 Corinthians 11:23-26 (KJV)
