

One more lesson dealing with Romans 12 today. This is that last one on that passage as we have been studying on “What a Christian Does” as our theme in the last few weeks. If you go online to www.mtgileadchurch.net/sermons you will find good notes on Romans 12 to study on that go with these lessons.

In Need of Prayer: Sue Isenberg is back! Amen to that. John Austin Gerald got to come home for Thanksgiving. We have an address for getting cards and such to him posted out front on the bulletin board. Phyllis Dyer is still waiting for them to decide what to do with her fluid issues. She may or may not have the valve repair based on a test they have been waiting to do on her. Teresa Netherton has been diagnosed with cancer. Jerry Short was still in the local hospital the last I heard. Brenda Birdwell has been fighting infection in the hospital for some time now. Our complete prayer list is at www.mtgileadchurch.net!

Doors Update (last one): We have a new system in place for building security and worship time. If you are going to be VERY late for church (and we all at some point or another are) then you will need to use the front door from now on as explained by the signs posted. The other doors will be fine to use until after church has started.

Nursing Home Today the service is at 3pm. They love to see all who come and visit. The service is short, so you get time to visit and talk with them before or after church.

Our Caring And Mighty God!

God knows and numbers the stars, yet is concerned about you and me, even though we’re broken by sin (Romans 3:23). He binds our shattered hearts with sensitivity and kindness, and He brings healing into the depths of our souls. The greatness of God’s power is the greatness of His heart. His strength is the measure of His love. He is a caring and mighty God.

The Psalmist tells us that God “counts the number of the stars,” and even “calls them all by name” (Psalm 147:4). Would He care for the stars that are mere matter and not care for us, who bear His image (Genesis 1:27)? Of course not. He knows about our lonely struggles, and He cares (1 Peter 5:6-7).

God, in the form of His Son Jesus, was subject to all our passions (Hebrews 2:18). He understands and does not scold or condemn when we fall short and fail. He listens to our cries for help, and gently corrects us (Hebrews 12:5-11).

The stars will fall from the sky someday. They are not God’s major concern — we are! He “is able to keep us from stumbling, and to present us faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy” (Jude 1:24). And He will do it!

Because God cares about us, we can leave our cares with Him (John 3:16; 1 Peter 5:7)
