

tidings From Timothy

You don't know what you are missing. This is an old expression to get someone to rethink not going to an activity, be in a club, or whatever. It is also good for thinking about people missing out on heaven. They really don't know what they are missing. This Sunday, we examine the lives of people who don't know what they are missing. Tonight, we focus on "An overview of Bible Inspiration." Haven't you always wondered why some are so confused about the Bible and don't see the qualities that prove it to be inspired of God? Tonight, you will understand how your neighbor is all confused on religion and how we can keep confidence in the word of God.

In Need of Prayer: Phyllis Dyer has been awaiting resolution on how best to treat her condition and to determine just to what extent her condition is due to a bad valve in her heart. Jerry Short is out of the hospital and getting home health. Dax Parsley has RSV and had to go to the hospital. Holiday Youth Devo: Middle and HS classes will meet at the Clements' house on Wednesday at 6:30pm for our holiday party and devotional. Boys just bring a drink, your bible, and maybe a lighthearted gift if you want to participate in the gift exchange. Girls bring something sweet (besides yourself!), your bible and also a gift. Be there or be square!

Our Caring and Mighty God!

God knows and numbers the stars, yet is concerned about you and me, even though we're broken by sin (Romans 3:23). He binds our shattered hearts with sensitivity and kindness, and He brings healing into the depths of our souls. The greatness of God's power is the greatness of His heart. His strength is the measure of His love. He is a caring and mighty God.

The Psalmist tells us that God "counts the number of the stars," and even "calls them all by name" (Psalm 147:4). Would He care for the stars that are mere matter and not care for us, who bear His image (Genesis 1:27)? Of course not. He knows about our lonely struggles, and He cares (1 Peter 5:6-7).

God, in the form of His Son Jesus, was subject to all our passions (Hebrews 2:18). He understands and does not scold or condemn when we fall short and fail. He listens to our cries for help, and gently corrects us (Hebrews 12:5-11).

The stars will fall from the sky someday. They are not God's major concern — we are! He "is able to keep us from stumbling, and to present us faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy" (Jude 1:24). And He will do it!

Because God cares about us, we can leave our cares with Him (John 3:16; 1 Peter 5:7)

<sup>10</sup> Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. <sup>11</sup>So Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into the sheath. Shall I not drink the cup which My Father has given Me?" John 18:10-11
