

Iwant to thank Steve and Greg for helping with the preaching while I am away at a Meeting at Beech Bethany in Clay Co. This was a weekend Meeting and ends today. I thought we had an excellent Meeting with really good crowds most nights and several visitors each evening. I believe the Lord will give the increase as we have sown the seed this past week.

In Need of Prayer: Boyd Copas is having to get therapy at the nursing home. Blanche Lyon is showing slow improvement. Bette Scott is getting treatments for her condition. Eugene Emberton is still trying to get his strength back. Kevin Geralds is in the local hospital and will have to have something done to deal with problems in his abdomen. We are saddened at the passing of Bernetta Proffitt. Sister Proffitt's funeral was Saturday and the singers and the ones who brought food are greatly appreciated. Marshall Isenberg is back and recovering from a stay at Norton's hospital in Louisville. Be listening this morning for others we will announce about. Our complete prayer list is at www.mtgileadchurch.net!

Meetings and such: There is a Gospel Meeting the 22nd to 24th at Oak Hill. They also have a ladies' day coming up on the 28th. Jack Honeycutt will have Meeting at Berea in May.

Church Camp: Applications are out front. You can save $5 by going online and registering at statelinecamp.com

Me and Self

I live with my beautiful bride, Judy, and a cranky old man named My Self.

Sometimes, when I rise early for my 45-minute walk, Self tells me, "You can't go out and walk today. Your knee hurts."

"Well, we're going out anyway," I reply.

"I'm just trying to say your right knee is going to be weak," Self says. "You might fall." Self knows how I hate falling down.

"Be that as it may," says I, "we're going.

Self doesn't like to exercise, though he always feels better after it. Self also likes to eat foods that are bad for us, and he would like to engage in conduct that is just plain wrong. So, we have a lot of arguments.

Listing the fruit of the Spirit, the apostle Paul included self-control in Galatians 5:23. In the next verse he wrote, "Now those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires." This relates to an earlier statement in the same book when Paul wrote, "I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me" (Galatians 2:20 NASB).

The problem most people have, including me, is that we are supposed to crucify Self and its desires and exercise self-control. Instead, we let Self talk us into things we shouldn't do.

So, when Self and I have discussions about what I should, or shouldn't do, he usually loses. I'm under the control of a new owner — Jesus Christ — and he rules in my life.

Does he rule in yours?
