

In need of Prayer: . Our thoughts and prayers are with the Bette Scott family. Her funeral was this past week. Steve Carter was in the local hospital while Connie was home, both with the flu. They are better. Marshall Isenberg is still recovering from his shoulder surgery, but he also has the flu. Veachel Harlan had a stomach ailment, and thankfully he is also better. Check the board in the foyer for a list of those who are still ailing. Mrs. J. R. Hunt, Jerri Rowland's mother is in the local nursing home.

The Church is Praying

“On their release, Peter and John went back to their own people and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. When they heard this, they raised their voices together in prayer to God” (Acts 4:23-24).

Prayer is in everything that the people of God do. We are commanded to “pray continually.” God’s people got into the most trouble when they did not inquire of the Lord. Prayer is to be a part of our daily walk with God, but it must be part of our worship when we come together as a church. Then, the men who lead the congregation in prayer have a big responsibility to communicate with the Almighty on behalf of the entire assembly. On many occasions in Scripture, we see believers gathered together engaged in prayer. Having healed a cripple, Peter and John give a bold defense of the gospel and are warned by the same body that condemned Jesus to not speak anymore of Him. The church, that was most likely praying for their release (Acts 12:12), was their base, that, seeing their prayers answered, turned their attention in prayer for boldness insteard in their declaration of Christ. Watch out world! The church is praying.

Do you worship God in prayer?

Doug Kashorek Plattsburgh church of Christ Plattsburgh, NY

Next Sunday is the fifth Sunday of the month. Remember everything donated above our budget will be used for benevolence. Plan on giving more to help more.

What Must I do?

-) Hear the Gospel - Acts 15:7
-) Believe the Gospel - Mark 16:15,16
-) Repent of Sins - Acts 17:30
-) Confess Christ - Rom. 10:9,10
-) Be Baptized for the Forgiveness of Sins - Acts 2:38

Then, as a Christian we must:

-) LIVE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH - REV. 2:10
